Swingin' and Singin' with Glen Everhart

Glen's show is a great fit for your next golf outing or Country Club event. He can perform indoors or out, on the course before the round or after dinner during the 19th hole. The perfect comedic addition to a great day on the links!

Glen takes well-known hit songs from decades past and changes them into song parodies that will make golfers of all skills and ages laugh on their backswing! His interactive show involves the audience both as a group and as individuals.

His bouncing banter, goofy golf gaffs and hilarious songs will leave your audience singing his catchy golf tunes as they walk down the fairway. This show is definitely a Titleist!

"Stearns Bank's 3rd Annual Memorial Golf Classic was a great success! For the past two years, we hired Glen Everhart as part of our program. He has been so accommodating, not to mention hilariously entertaining, that we would gladly have him as part of our staff! Glen brought everyone to tears of laughter with his golf show. We enjoyed it so much we will definitely have him back again."
